Dear Chief Whitehawk and Council:

Re: Update on Case Management Re Maurice Law
MLT Aikins File No: 0182067-00005

We write to provide an update on the litigation with Maurice Law. This litigation relates to the fairness and reasonableness of the retainer agreement between Day Star First Nation and Maurice Law. Under the terms of the retainer agreement, Maurice Law is asserting an entitlement to contingency fees from Day Star.

The court proceedings are being case managed in the Saskatchewan Court of King's Bench, which means that progress is being supervised by a judge. To date, Maurice Law continues to refuse to release Day Star's legal files.

On May 7th, 2026, Day Star requested a hearing date for its application for the release of Day Star's files and a determination from the court that funds be held in trust as security for the contingency fees, rather than the fees being paid directly to Maurice Law.

The judge determined that Day Star's hearing would take place at the same time as another First Nation who is also challenging Maurice Law's retainer agreement. The judge noted that the hearing may not take place until after the fall. A further case management conference is scheduled for June 22, 2026 to discuss hearing dates.

Yours truly,

MLT AIKINS LLP
